Prospective Authors:

If you wish to propose an article for a specific issue, please contact the managing editor at dgudakunst@theiacp.org before the manuscript deadline (as early as possible), so that you can be connected with the guest editor responsible for developing content for the issue of interest. The guest editors may set earlier deadlines for the authors selected.

Articles for general consideration can be submitted to the managing editor at any time. Please note that we do publish "general interest" articles (on any topic) year-round as space and scheduling permits, both in print and online.
